President's Message

Lessons learned (hopefully!)

Hues of the Ozarks

The Fall Show is October 5 through the 7th. Set-up will begin on Wednesday, October 3rd, and displaying artists can set up October 4, (10 to 4) Patron's evening will be October 5 (5-8). For additional information call Jan Rosenburg, 417-230-1286.

Lesson 1: Always have a Plan B in your pocket! I sat the Gallery this week and before I went in, I put a roast and vegetables in the crock pot so that dinner would be ready when I got home. That was Plan A. As I drove down OO, my mouth was beginning to water as I anticipated the delicious aroma that would greet me at home. When I walked in the house I was a bit disappointed that the smell didn't live up to my expectations. I was shocked to find that the power had flipped off and back on sometime during the morning and the dinner hadn't even started to cook. Plan B was salmon fillets from the freezer, Kraft mac and cheese dinner, and a salad.

Lesson 2: No good deed goes unpunished! (I borrow this lesson from Paula Buzenius) She sat the Gallery on Thursday, and when she called Jeanette Lowe to remind her she was scheduled to "sit" on Friday, Jeanette said she had a conflict and had left a message for Jan. Knowing that Jan was working at Silver Dollar City, Paula stepped in and volunteered to sit for Jeanette. Another electrical issue intervened, though. I got a call early on Friday morning from Paula. Her power had been out for 12 hours and she couldn't get their garage door open to get her car out to drive to the Gallery! [Fortunately, her power came on about 10 minutes later and she rushed to open the garage door and was soon on her way – happy ending to that lesson!]

Lesson 3: Be careful what you ask for, you might get it! If I listed all the times I forgot this lesson and had to deal with what I got, there wouldn't be any room left for Barb to put in all the interesting news she has for you. I only caution you to take this lesson to heart!

I'll try to keep these lessons in mind as I scurry to get ready for our upcoming Fall Festival of Art (particularly the Plan B one!) Looking forward to seeing you all there!

Pat

Table Rock Art Guild Meeting Minutes - September 18, 2018

Pat Hovis-French shared inspiration and prayer at 12 noon. Artist of the Month voting will be open until 12:10 pm.

Pat Hovis-French opened the meeting at 12:15 pm August Meeting Minutes were reviewed. Motion to accept the Minutes by Val Medley, 2nd by Susan Sketers. Approved by voice vote.

Sunshine: Barb Blain took a fall and is recovering; Gail Davis is having surgery for skin cancer, Pat Van Husen is in rehab at Table Rock Nursing Home and welcomes visitors, Sandy Fearn's mother-in-law is in ICU and most likely passing today, Dave Carver is resuming a new cancer treatment, Dave Medley is still in the hospital.

Pat shared information on TRAG participation in the Stone County Art Studio Tour held on October 27. Cookie donations would be welcome and needed to share with those coming to our Gallery. Pat had flyers to post and handouts for advertising the event.

Pat shared that the TRAG website and Facebook page are attracting attention from non-members. Don French will be selling Fall Festival Drawing tickets. Val Medley asks for a volunteer to supply candy for the tables at the October Meeting.

Pat shared that the Treasurer's Report was approved by the Board and will be available in the Gallery Office. The Gallery showed a profit for the 2nd month in a row.

Ginny Campbell shared details regarding the upcoming Field Trip to Dogwood Canyon. Nancy Williams, a new member and employee at Dogwood Canyon, got a group fee of $10 perperson, which includes tram transport and pick up to various spots in the park. Please pay Ginny beforehand so she can give Nancy one check for the group. Meet at the Gallery on Saturday, October 20, at 8:30 am, or at the park at 9:30 am. Gather at the park pavilion to buddy up for the tram transportation. Drop off back at the restaurant/museum gift shop by 11:30 am.

Gallery Panels: For any change in the status of your panel, please contact Jan Rosenburg directly.

Fall Festival Drawing Donations need to be into the Gallery as soon as possible for viewing. Fall Festival tags, for posting on each art piece displayed, are in the Gallery office. Everyone should use those provided and not their personal tags. Fall Festival set up date is Thursday, October 4, 10 am – 4 pm.

Jack O'Keefe asks for a volunteer for a satellite bank display. Susan Sketers volunteered.

We currently have 76 Members in the Guild.

Tutorial Workshop in October will be Origami by Sandy Fearn.

October Program will be a presentation on TRAG Art in the Ozarks and Fall Festival highlights.

Artist Of The Month:

1st place, Jan Rosenburg

2nd place, Don Haberman and Paula Buzenius

3rd place, Helen Long

Everyone thanked Helen Long for her volunteer work with the Guild.

Pat presented the 2019 slate of officers for the TRAG and asked for nominations from the floor. None received: Motion to accepted the 2019 Slate of Officers by Susan Sketers, 2nd by Kate Rickard. Approved by voice vote. Installation of Officers will be at the December Meeting.

Motion to adjourn by Judy Bell, 2nd by Val Medley. Adjourned at 12:45 pm

Program presented by Springfield Regional Art Council. Leslie Forrester and Rachel Johnson gave an excellent overview of the benefits and services the Council provides to 27 Missouri Counties. They are located at 411 North Sherman Ave in Springfield and their website is SpringfieldArts.org. Contact # is 417-862-2787 TRAG is currently a member.

Respectfully submitted,
LaVerne Hetzel, TRAG Secretary

Field Trip Update

If you missed our Sept. meeting you missed the details of our next field trip which is Dogwood Canyon on Sat. Oct 20. $10 is our special rate for the itinerary below. A savings to us of at least $35. It was announced that you may register beginning Mon. Sept. 17 through October 15 (our next meeting). Note that I said "register" not "sign up". In the past all you had to do was say "I'd like to come put my name on the list." For this trip you'll have to pay your entrance fee of $10 when you sign up. You can do one of the following to sign up:

1. Register and pay on Oct. 15th at our meeting.
2. Send your check for $10 to Ginny Campbell 1517 Lake Bluff Dr. Reeds Spring, MO 65737
3. Catch Ginny at the upcoming show and register then.

Itinerary for Dogwood Canyon Field Trip Sat, Oct. 20

- Meet at Gallery at 8:30 am
- Leave for Park at 9:00 am
- Arrive at Park 9:30-9:45 Gather at parking lot at pavillion. "Buddy up" for the time you choose to leave the tram to paint, photograph or sketch.
- Begin tour at 10:00 am. Tram will pick us up there. We may take along limited equipment. This is not a "guided tour".
- Leave far end of park at 10:30 am to drop off artists at points of their choice (buddies of 2 or more please).
- Pick up by tram at designated points beginning at 12:00 noon
- Return to restaurant for lunch at 1:00/1:30
- After lunch you are on your own to explore the museum, mill and treehouse, and head home when you and you passengers decide.

Art and the Internet

Karen Pugh

There are many articles about mixing colors and getting mud, but this one goes way beyond the others in making it clearer.

Which of these two combinations will result in a muddy color? Why?

See answer at
