Out and About Touting TRAG

TRAG has received quite a bit of "word of mouth" publicity this past month. Because TRAG was featured in the August 8 "Learning on Wednesday" session at the Kimberling Area Library, we were invited to send someone to talk about TRAG and the event on the early morning radio show on KZRK 106.3 with Janice Ellis on August 1. I reluctantly agreed to represent us even though public appearances are not my strong point. Turned out that it was fun, and Janice Ellis is delightful! Then the Learning on Wednesday event was fun, too! I did a PowerPoint about the projects and opportunities that TRAG has to offer to others in the Ozarks. The people that attended the event seemed really interested and asked some pointed questions. Hopefully, some of them will take advantage of some of our meeting programs, mini-workshops, field trips, First Friday events, or the Fall Festival!

Speaking of First Friday events, Barb Hirsh and Linda Edge-Dunlap have one scheduled for September 7. Hope many of you will turn out to support them between 3 and 6 p.m.

Jan Rosenburg's mini-workshop on August 28 was such fun. We all enjoyed playing with dye on silk hoops and scarves. Some photos of the event are posted on our website "news blog" and on the Gallery/Guild Facebook page and I'm sure that people visiting the Library when we spread our scarves outside to dry were curious about what we were up to and will want to learn more about the Guild. you want to help spread the word about what the Guild has to offer, please pick up some of our new brochures and share them with your family and friends.

Toutingly yours,
Pat

Field Trip Update

Ginny Campbell

Have you been to Dogwood Canyon lately, say in the last two years? What changes! Or perhaps you've never been there. We're planning a special trip for Art Guild members in October so you can check it out up close and personal. Our new member, Nancy Williams works at Dogwood and she's been helping us negotiate a special event for our members.

Dogwood is a very popular tourist destination particularly at the height of the autumn season. Since our arrangements with them include special pricing for our members we will have to be somewhat flexible with our date in order to accommodate their full price customers. I will give you more details at our Sept. meeting. Oh, and when you meet Nancy remember to thank her, she has been a real help.
